The buffalo storm / by Katherine Applegate ; illustrated by Jan Ormerod.

Hallie isn't afraid of anything -- that is, anything but storms, which she braves along with her grandmother, huddled beneath a special quilt. When her family decides to join a wagon train and go west, leaving her grandmother -- and everything Hallie has even known -- behind, Hallie knows she will have to be braver than she's ever been before. But can she summon up the courage to help a young buffalo calf stuck on a rocky ridge during a wild storm?

Cloudy with a chance of meatballs / written by Judi Barrett ; drawn by Ron Barrett.

The tiny town of Chewandswallow was very much like any other tiny town except for its weather which came three times a day, at breakfast lunch and dinner. But it never rained rain and it never snowed snow and it never blew just wind. It rained things like soup and juice. It snowed things like mashed potatoes. And sometimes the wind blew in storms of hamburgers. Life for the townspeople was delicious until the weather took a turn for the worse. The food got larger and larger and so did the portions. Chewandswallow was plagued by damaging floods and storms of huge food. The town was a mess and the people feared for their lives. Something had to be done, and in a hurry.

Taking aim : power and pain, teens and guns / edited by Michael Cart.

Sixteen authors contribute stories that explore guns and teens. From a boy whose low self-esteem is impacted when a gun comes into his possession to a student recalling a senseless tragedy that befell a favorite teacher, from a realistic look at hunting to a provocative look at a family that defies stereotypes, each story stirs the debate to new levels. The juxtaposition of guns and their consequences offers a reminder of the impact of guns in our society.
